

This is the highest Leaning Tower in Poland - 34 m. the tower's deviation from vertical is 2.14m. After overcoming 139 stairs, you can see Żabkowice Śląskie and the charming panorama of the surrounding area - the view is unforgettable. The tower's past is mysterious and its history unexplained. Until now it can't be determined with certainty when exactly it was erected or what purpose it was built for.

In the Mineralogical Museum in Szklarska Poręba you can see nearly 4000 exhibits: mineral stones and fossils from all over the world and one exhibit from space - the Gibeon meteorite. In front of the museum building there is the Carboniferous Wood - the only one in Europe. It includes petrified trunks of Dadoxylon trees that grew here about 300 million years ago. In a separate section of the museum there are fossils and skeletons of dinosaurs. It is Poland's largest private collection of reptiles that lived millions of years ago and an exhibition of old car models: "From the beginning of automotive industry to the present day". In the Museum there is a shop where you can buy regional souvenirs, mineral stones and jewelry.

Opening hours:
During the season: every day 10:00-18:00
off-season: Tuesday to Sunday 10:00-18:00
Mondays closed

Our mission is simple - we show the hardship of mining work to the masses of tourists every day. We remind the older generations of this, we teach the new one. We keep and store mining traditions and artifacts. Our tourist and educational programs are adapted to every age group. We know perfectly well that the man will remember most of the information when it sometimes is funny and sometimes horrible.
